SUMMER 2020

THE SCHOOL OF THE PERFORMING ARTS IS A PARTNER OF

We change expectations about how the arts can serve a community.

With brand new buildings in Albany and Saratoga joining our state of the art facility at Proctors, this summer features more Arts Education programming than ever before at Proctors Collaborative!

Beyond staging great performances at venues in three cities, we are a catalyst for excellence in education, providing the highest caliber arts training programs in the region. Whether in Albany, Schenectady or Saratoga, the School of the Performing Arts offers programs to inspire and elevate your skills to the next level in addition to providing resume building experiences. Hone your talents on or off the stage with industry professionals while creating memories that will last a lifetime.

See page 18 for the location and addresses of our three venues.

Young actors interested in honing their skills and performing on Capital Repertory Theatre's professional stage are invited to audition for the REP's 2020 Summer Stage Young Acting Company. The actors selected from these auditions will make up the company, alongside professional actors, and bring five winning plays from The Young Playwright Contest to life. Acting Company members will receive daily classes in acting, speech for the stage, character development and stage movement from artists working in the field in addition to rehearsing and developing these new works. Under the guidance of a professional director, and with the REP's talented and accomplished artistic and production teams, The Acting Company will bring these new plays to audiences for the first time at the Capital District's premier professional theatre.

An audition breakdown will be released on or by April 9, 2020 and will be posted at school.proctors.org

Audition Information:

1. Prepare a memorized, one-minute, monologue.
2. If you can play an instrument, come prepared to play.
3. Please bring headshot and resume stapled together.
4. To schedule an audition appointment, visit school.proctors.org/acting-company-submissions/
